STAY

TENUTA

Tenuta Armaiolo is an age old Tuscan Estate.

Located just 2 Kms away from Rapolano Terme, around Siena, extending for 600 acres of flora and fauna typical of this area.

The 13 scattered hamlets within the area make stays at the estate immensely suggestive.

Three of these ancient houses are fully dedicated to the stay of the guests during their stay, in which both the rooms and the apartments are finished in a rustic Tuscan style, within the naturalness of the place.

Now as in the past the Estate is a living country estate produces Grance Senesi wine, olive oil, corn, maize, town of Siena, meats and much more that you can also buy directly on-site, visiting the production and livestock.

The vast fields available allow you to organize the natural path “of research of herbs and officers”.

Within the 600 acres are five lakes for sport fishing, walking through mountain biking trails that delight the typical Tuscan atmosphere.

At about 1.5 km there is a thermal plant with a large park pools and a fully equipped wellness center.

The estate offers free parking, and is located 20 km from Siena, 100 km from Florence and 2 km away from a spa.

Upon request breakfast is provided with home-made products and deliciously served in the main house entrance, where an ancient Romanesque-style church houses the hall and its exterior.

Featuring an outdoor swimming pool available to all guests staying in the different ancient houses, this is nestled into a hillside of the estate reached either on foot or in the car in a few minutes compared to the more distant hamlets.

Both the apartments and the suites have a fully equipped kitchen corner.
